

New Zealand Society of Oncology are delighted to invite you to the inaugural

PERSONALISED HEALTH CARE SUMMIT

Friday, November 27th 2020

Programme

- 930 Mihi whakatau
- 1015-1115 Data sovereignty and equity focus
- Dr Nina Scott (Nga Puhī, Ngati Whatua, Waikato)
 - Dr Donna Cormack, (Kāti Mamoe, Kai Tahu)
 - Irene Kereama-Royal, (Hauraki, Ngati Raukawa ki te Tonga and Ngāpuhi)
- 1115-1145 Pathology primer
- Assoc Prof Chris Hemmings
- 1145-1245 PHC basics/pitfalls – interpretation data etc.
- Professor Cris Print
 - Dr Matt Strother

1245-1330 Keynote speaker - Prof David Thomas

The Australian Genomic Cancer Medicine Centre: a national precision oncology platform

Professor Thomas is head of the Genomic Cancer Medicine, Garvan Institute of Medical Research, director of the Kinghorn Cancer Centre, chief executive officer of Omico: Australian Genomic Cancer Medicine Centre and conjoint professor St Vincent's Clinical School, Faculty of Medicine, UNSW.

- 1330-1350 Current PHC use/need in Aotearoa/New Zealand – summary of pre-meeting attendee survey
- 1350-1420 Current PHC trials – Auckland experience
- Dr Michelle Wilson
 - Dr Laird Cameron
- 1420-1430 Education needs Aotearoa/New Zealand
- Professor Cris Print
- 1430-1600 Breakout sessions
- Real world utility of NGS
 - Equity focus
 - National approach to NGS access – avoid DHB/post-code lottery
 - Peer-to-peer support – how to interpret/use all that data

- 1600-1700 Model molecular tumour board
- Dr Ben Lawrence
 - Professor Cris Print
 - Dr Polona Le Quesne Stabej
 - Dr Anassuya Ramachandran
 - Dr Veronica Boyle
 - Professor Martin Kennedy
 - Dr Sharon Pattison
 - Assoc Prof Chris Hemmings

Morning and afternoon refreshments and lunch included